Articles of Association for Aktiebolaget Volvo

§ 1

The name of the Company is Aktiebolaget Volvo.
The company is a public company (publ).

§ 2

The Company shall – directly or through subsidiaries – mainly carry on business within the areas of transport, foodstuffs, energy and finance (with the exception, however, of activities provided for the Swedish Banking Business Act and the Swedish Credit Market Companies Act), manage real estate and moveable property and carry on other activities compatible therewith.

§ 3

The Board of the Company shall have its registered office in Gothenburg.

§ 4

The Company's share capital shall comprise a minimum of one thousand eight hundred million (1,800,000,000) kronor and a maximum of seven thousand two hundred million (7,200,000,000) kronor.

The number of shares shall be a minimum of 1,000,000,000 and a maximum of 4,000,000,000.

Two classes of shares may be issued, series A and series B. The number of shares of each class may at most amount to the maximum number of shares in the Company.

In a vote at a General Meeting, series A shares carry one vote and series B shares one-tenth of a vote. Series A shares and series B shares carry equal rights to share in the assets and earnings of the Company.

Should the Company decide to issue new series A and series B shares by way of a cash issue or offset issue, the holders of series A and series B shares shall have a preferential right to subscribe for new shares of the same series in proportion to their existing shareholding (primary preferential right). Shares not subscribed for by virtue of a primary preferential right shall be offered for subscription to all shareholders (subsidiary preferential right). If shares thus offered are insufficient for subscription by virtue of a subsidiary preferential right, the shares shall be distributed among those wishing to subscribe in proportion to their previous shareholding or, to the extent this is not possible, through the drawing of lots.

Should the Company decide to issue new shares of only series A or series B through a cash issue or offset issue, all shareholders, regardless of whether they hold series A shares or series B shares, shall have the preferential right to subscribe for new shares in proportion to their previous shareholding.

Should the Company decide to issue subscription options or convertibles through a cash issue or offset issue, the shareholders shall have a preferential right to subscribe for subscription options in the same way as if the issue applied to the shares that could be newly subscribed for as a result of the option right or the preferential right to subscribe for convertibles in the same way as if the issue applied to the shares for which the convertibles could be exchanged.

The above shall not constitute any restriction on the possibility to decide on a cash issue or offset issue, deviating from the preferential rights of the shareholders.

If the share capital is increased through a bonus issue, new shares in each series shall be issued in proportion to the existing number of shares in each series. Old shares in a specific series shall thus carry entitlement to new shares in the same series. The aforesaid shall not constitute any restriction on the possibility to issue new shares of a new series through a bonus issue, following the requisite amendment to the Articles of Association.

After request from a shareholder, series A shares (one or more) belonging to that shareholder shall be converted to series B shares. The request of conversion, which shall be in writing and state the number of shares to be converted, shall be addressed to the Board. The Company shall without delay notify the conversion to the Company Registration Authority for registration.

The Board of Directors is entitled to appoint one or more special auditors or a registered firm of auditors to examine reports or plans prepared by the Board in accordance with the Companies Act in conjunction with a new issue of shares, subscription options or convertibles, which contains stipulations regarding contribution in kind or that subscription shall take place by virtue of a right of set-off or under other terms and conditions, a transfer of the Company's own shares in return for non-cash consideration, a reduction in the share capital or the statutory reserve, a merger or a division of a limited company.

A shareholder may be accompanied by one or two assistants when attending a General Meeting, but only if the shareholder's notification pursuant to the previous paragraph includes information to that effect.
