Volvo Trucks

Deliveries in August were down by 59% compared with the year-earlier period and remained at a low level due to weak demand and extra vacation weeks. Deliveries to the European markets decreased by 77% and North American deliveries were down by 53%.

The South American markets have been relatively strong in relation to the global economy. The demand for trucks in Brazil has also been boosted by tax incentives for new trucks and good access to financial credits in the bank system.
